Political and Services Department

No. SC-6-168/77 19850 / Gen.
Bhubaneswar dated the 11th Nov '77.

To All Departments of Government.

Sub: Review of orders in disciplinary cases.

The undersigned is directed to say that a question as to whether the punishing authority, who is not the appellate authority, can review his order, was under consideration in this Department. After careful consideration it has been decided that since there is no provision in C.C.A. Rules authorising the disciplinary authority to review his own orders the said authority is not competent to review his decision once taken in the matter. The appellate authority can however, either on his own motion or otherwise, review the orders passed by the disciplinary authority.
