Government of Orissa
Political & Services Department.

.....

No.9402(22)Gen.,Dated 15.6.1974.

To

All Collectors
All Sub-Divisional Officers.

It has come to the notice of Government that when Ministers visit districts, a large number of vehicles assemble at the reception point. With a view to reducing non-development expenditure to the minimum, Government have been pleased to order that the minimum number of officers only should be present at the reception point when Ministers visit districts. In the case of Chief Minister, The District Magistrate and the Superintendent of Police should be present and in case of other Ministers, the highest Officer of the Department in Station should be present. Other officers need not attend unless specially asked for by the Minister. Revenue Department Circular letter No.9041(76)R.,dt.2.8.49 will stand modified to the above extent.
