Sub:- Dropping of disciplinary proceeding in the event of death of the charged officer

A number of cases are being received from different departments seeking views of this department on finalization of pending disciplinary proceeding after death of the charged officer. After careful consideration of all aspects, it has been decided that where a charged officer dies before finalization of a disciplinary proceeding initiated against him under the OCS (CC&A) Rules, 1962, the proceeding should be immediately closed on the death of the charged officer.

However, in cases where charges pertain to defalcation of Government money, though the proceeding may be dropped on death of the charged officer, if it can be proved that the legal heirs of the deceased government servant have inherited any assets acquired by the Government servant with the help of the defalcated money, then that can be realised from them.
