Subject:- Verification of character and antecedents of Government servants before appointment

The undersigned is directed to say that instructions were issued in Book Circular 11 and para I (b) of Political and Services Department Memo No. 11852(74) Gen., dated 14.9.57 laying down that prior verifications of antecedents and character of candidates for entry into Government service when required shall be made even if it involves a certain amount of delay. In exceptional cases however, except where the appointment is against a permanent post or in a long term vacancy, the Departments concerned may make appointments on a purely provisional basis and simultaneously take steps to verify them. But it has come to the notice of Government that in some cases candidates are appointed indiscriminately without prior verification of character and antecedents. Government are sometimes put to an embarrassing position thereby. It is requested that the instructions issued by Government referred to above should be strictly followed. This may be brought to the notice of all appointing authorities subordinate to them.
