MEMORANDUM

Bhubaneswar, dated the 19th November, 1975.

Sub:- Uniform recruitment rules for recruitment of L.D. Assistants in the offices of Heads of Departments.

Under the existing rules and instructions the various Heads of Departments recruit L.D. Assistants for their own offices through competitive examination/selection or interview. This results in difference in the standard of selection for the posts of L.D. Assistants in the offices of Heads of Departments although the pay scale attached to these posts and the work expected of them is equal in all offices of the Heads of Departments. It has been represented that there should be a uniform recruitment policy for L.D. Assistants for all offices of the Heads of Departments. Government have accepted this in principle. Accordingly under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India a set of uniform recruitment rules for L.D. Assistant has been prepared in consultation with Home, Revenue and Law Departments, a copy of which is enclosed.

The Memorandum is placed before the Cabinet for favour of approval of the Draft Rules.
